

Fast forward to my job here at GMCC. Since my start as the new chaplain / client support worker, I have engaged with many of our clients and started discipling some of them personally in our centre.

Here at GMCC we see lives changed all the time. As we continue serving the most vulnerable in society and create second chances for prison leavers and ex-offenders, we see many of our guests engaging in our services from Tuesday afternoon chapel service to our Thursday morning bible studies. It's such a privilege working with them all and I have learned to see people through the eyes of God. All our guests / clients are precious to our Father. We are excited for all that God is about to do in the second half of 2025 as we continue to bring hope and continue to share the life changing Gospel with our clients / guests.

Thank you so much for your continued prayers and support to our mission to help create a fresh new start for all of our clients / guests at the centre.

Prison Prayer letter for September 2025

Transformed lives

Have you every wondered if God is still a God of miracles? Have you ever wondered if He is still in the business of transforming lives? Have you ever wondered whether God sees us and knows what we are going through in life? These are questions I have asked myself many times. After I came to faith in Jesus, these questions I have been asking myself became a reality for me. As I started to share my faith in Christ Jesus with people around me, I started seeing peoples lives change.

I boldly shared my redemptive story about what Jesus has done for me and what He can do for the people in the community. I have seen addicts surrender their lives to Jesus, atheists confessing Jesus as Lord and Saviour and many more people whom you would say will never accept Jesus in their lives. This is not because I tell a good story, but it's because I have experienced God's redeeming love in my life and I couldn't stop telling the world about His love, kindness, goodness, mercy and power to change lives no matter the circumstances people were in. God is good!!
